

What is Climate Change?

'Climate change' is actually a response to the stimulus of change in the global energy balance.

Largely due to the increased levels of Green House Gases produced by the use of fossil fuels

Start Module >>
Evidences